PARTY OF FIVE

Robert Hershon

you could put a chair at the end or push the tables together but dont bother This banged-up little restaurant where you would expect no rules at all has a firm policy against seating parties of five
 And you know you are a party of five
 It doesn't matter if one of you offers to leave or if you say you could split into a party of three and a party of two or if the five of you come back tomorrow in Richard Nixon masks and try to pretend that you don't know each other It won't work: You're a party of five even if you're a beloved regular Even if the place is empty Even if you bring logic to bear Even if you're a tackle for the Chicago Bears it won't work You're a party of five
 You will always be a party of five A hundred blocks from here a hundred years from now you will still be a party of five and you will never savor the soup or compare the coffee or hear the wisdom of the cook and the wit of the waitress or get to hum the old -time tunes among which you will find no quintets
